

A FATHER OF faith

BY: PASTOR DALE EVRIST

*A father of faith is a seeker, one who's pursuing God's face
A son of desire and devotion, a man who loves God's secret place*

*A father of faith is a learner, one who faithfully studies God's word
A student of all that is holy, a man who lives out what is heard*

*A father of faith is a speaker, one who is ready to preach
A bearer of God's saving gospel, a man reaching those in his reach*

*A father of faith is a teacher, one with a message to share
A discipler and mentor of others, a man who shapes lives in his care*

*A father of faith is a leader, one who boldly embraces the day
A guide that others can follow, a man bravely blazing the way*

*A father of faith is a follower, one who's pursuing his Lord
A worshiper, worker and witness, a man of the Spirit and Word*

*A father of faith is a soldier, one who is postured for war
A brother who is born for the battle, a man always ready for more*

*A father of faith is a prayer, one who's discerning God's will
A declarer of faith-filled agreement, a man standing steadfast and still*

*A father of faith is a praiser, one who's exalting God's name
A mouthpiece proclaiming God's greatness, a man who is spreading His fame*

*A father of faith is a server, one who's submitted and bowed
A slave imitating His master, a man armed with basin and towel*

*"God, please make me a father of faith, one who is doing his part
A son representing his Father, a man who's reflecting Your heart."*
